Collection 6 Sheet Music Collection

By Eric Hung
May 2017

History

This collection is made up of sheet music that has some sort of Trenton connection. There are songs written about George Washington or other notables related to the City, the Battle of Trenton and the American Revolution, events that occurred in the City, and just in celebration of the City. Some of the sheet music was published in the City, or composed by a City resident.

The collection was originally created in 2015 and was cataloged into the general Library online catalog using bar codes. The original 2015 list is in Box 2. Each sheet music piece was placed in its own individual folder and then labeled with its corresponding bar code.

This collection is different and separate from the General Sheet Music Collection, which was originally in the circulating collection of the Library.

Contents – one flat box, one ½-document box
